Our Take: Owning the best address in the city, The Rittenhouse has long been the standard to measure Philly's other luxury hotels against. Guests marvel at the grandeur of the property, as seen when looking from the outside in (at the gorgeous wood-paneled lobby) or gazing from the inside out (from one of the guestroom windows down to the picturesque, tree-lined street). On the premises, you'll find the Adolf Biecker Spa and Salon, a health club and pool (with such treatments as a Peppermint Oil Massage) to complete the cosmopolitan paradise. Rarely does the staff or old-fashion elegance of the property disappoint.
